

Scholarship for AICP Exam

If you are an aspiring American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP) candidate, and you are experiencing a financial hardship (including a hardship caused by a budget cutback in a firm or agency) that would cause you to defer taking the AICP exam, you may qualify for the 2019 AICP Exam Fee Scholarship.

The scholarship recipient would pay reduced fees to take the AICP exam, as follows:

- Approved AICP applicants: $75 (Exam fee only. The fee is reduced from $425)
- NEW!!! AICP Candidate Pilot Program Participants $75 (Exam fee only. The fee is reduced from $100)
- All applicants pay the $70 application fee
- Included in the scholarship will be the SCAPA AICP prep course.

The value of the scholarship is $460 ($135 for an AICP Candidate applicant).

If you are interested, and believe you would qualify, please forward your letter of interest to southerlanda@charleston-sc.gov demonstrating how you meet the following criteria:

- You are a SCAPA member in good standing;
- You are unlikely to take the exam, without the reduced fee;
- Your employer will not subsidize the exam fee;

If not currently a member of SCAPA, you may submit your letter of interest with the understanding that you would be required to become a member if selected for the scholarship. Chapter membership is $35 annually.

All letters must be received by August 30, 2019. SCAPA would thereafter make a recommendation to APA for the SCAPA member, who has submitted the most compelling letter of interest, to receive the scholarship.
